SOUTHINGTON --- After a 5 year hiatus the Southington High School Marching Band Super Bowl Sub Sale is back. Net proceeds from the effort will help pay for an upcoming trip to Washington DC where members of the State Champion Blue Knights Marching Band & Color Guard and other musicians from the school will perform at the Jefferson Memorial.

The Super Bowl Sub Sale is a huge undertaking, preparations having begun nearly two months ago. Joe Foti, Chairman for the fundraiser, has been impressed with both the scope of the undertaking and the efforts of the volunteers. "It's amazing how much goes into an endeavor like this. You don't realize how big it is until you're in the middle of it. If we do this right we'll end up making and delivering three to four thousand submarine sandwiches on Super Bowl Sunday! Fortunately I've had a ton of help setting this up."

Once preparations are complete, nearly 100 High School students will team up in groups of four and canvas the town on Saturday, January 15, taking orders for Turkey, Ham and Italian Combo subs. The following week they will be on their own, taking orders from friends, relatives and neighbors. Then it's time to compile the numbers and figure out how much meat, lettuce, tomatoes and rolls to order from local supermarkets.

Finally on February 6 at 6:00am the students, parents and other volunteers will gather at the High School to assemble the subs, fill hundreds of boxes and bags with the appropriate selections and scatter around town making deliveries in time for the recipients to enjoy their subs while watching the big game. The goal is to have all subs delivered by early in the afternoon on Super Bowl Sunday.

The cost per sub is $5.00. For more information or to arrange for group purchases contact Chairman Joe Foti at 860-919-4580 or Tom Jacob at 860-276-8820.
